OGLESBY'S DECISION.

Parsons, Engel, Fischer and Spies to Hang.

SAD SCENES AT THE PRISON

Lingg Ends His Troubles by Suicide—Details of the Terrible Tragedy.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

CHICAGO, November 10.—4:25 P. M.—Sheriff Matson has just received a message from the Governor that Fielden and Schwab's sentence has been commuted to life imprisonment.

The other four are to hang to-morrow.

BEARING THE NEWS.

When the news of the sentence of Fielden and Schwab was received at the jail there was an extraordinary scene of activity. The news was sent to the relatives of all the condemned men, and in a short time they began to arrive at the jail. The first of the women to come was Mrs. Schwab, and soon after Schwab was brought from his cell to the main office. His wife quickly advanced to him, and throwing her arms about his neck,

BURST INTO TEARS.

Schwab returned the embrace in a calm manner and soon the two were chatting quietly together. After this Spies and Fischer were brought from their cells and taken to the jail library. Engel was brought to the private office of Mr. Foltz. This was done for the purpose of allowing the relatives to take their last interviews. The first woman to arrive after Mrs. Schwab was Miss Engel, daughter of the condemned Anarchist. When the two met in the private office there was it is impossible to describe. The father and daughter clung to each other and sobbed convulsively. Their conversation was in German, and listened to only by Deputy Oleson. Then came Mrs. Spies, mother of August. She had been weeping outside for an hour and a half.

AN OUTBURST OF GRIEF

HER SOBS

Could be heard through the corridors of the building. She did not stay long in the library with her son, and on her exit from the jail Mrs. Fischer was admitted. She went into the library, and her lamentations were heard above the tramp of the deputies who swarm the place. But

THE CROWNING SCENE

Of all was the visit of Nina Van Zandt, the proxy wife of Spies. She was conducted to the library by Deputy Oleson. As she walked through the main office she betrayed no emotion, but the moment she saw August completely

CHANGED HER DEMEANOR.

There was a look, then a gasp, and in a thrice the lovers were in each others arms. A bevy of curious reporters and officers crowded up to the door of the library, but it was quickly shut by the Deputy. The interview between the prisoner and his faithful devotee lasted nearly half an hour. What actually transpired will never be known to the world, but it was sufficient to bring

A GLIMMER OF TEARS

To the eyes of the old deputy. In half an hour the lovers had parted and the excitement of the entrance of Nina had passed. At six o'clock there was an influx of deputy sheriffs to the jail. Men who for years had been serving civil writs and not bothering their heads about hangings came in. They all wore heavy overcoats, and in the right-hand pockets of these were bulky objects, which to the eyes of the experienced, were

PLAINLY REVOLVERS.

Orders were given forbidding the entrance of anyone not connected with the press or the sheriff's office; then some of the deputies went to supper and matters quieted down.

SPIRITUAL AID OFFERED.

It was at 7:25 o'clock that Rev. Dr. Bolton, of the first Methodist Church, called on Parsons. His visit lasted about three minutes, and his efforts to get Parsons to consider spiritual matters were of no avail. At 8:20 o'clock Spies, Fischer and Engel were taken from the rooms in which they had bade farewell to their relatives, and consigned to their cells. These were soon closely guarded and an armed deputy stood in front of each barred door.

INSIDE OF THE CELL

Of each prisoner was a lantern, while a table was placed outside and on this was a lamp, thus giving the guards an opportunity to watch the movements of each prisoner. Mrs. Lucy Parsons

CREATED A SCARE

In the Criminal Court building about 10 o'clock. She walked down Michigan street to the main entrance and was admitted to the hallway by the armed guards. She had with her a lady friend and approaching the door which leads to the jail yard she

DEMANDED PERMISSION

To proceed. This was denied her by the Deputy Sheriff, acting under the direction of Sheriff Matson.

"But I must go in to see my husband," exclaimed Mrs. Parsons.

"You cannot," was the reply. Then the dusky wife of the Anarchist threw up her hands and fell to the tiled floor

IN A DEAD FAINT.

It took over twenty minutes to bring her to consciousness, but when this was done she was escorted from the building. Parsons was informed of the episode

THEIR LAST NIGHT.

At 11:50 Parsons is still awake and pacing his cell with a restless step. Occasionally his face shows up in the glare of the lantern sitting in front of his door, and the light in his eyes seems brighter than in the early evening. Fischer and Spies sit on their beds well back from the cell doors and say but little.

CHANGING THE GUARD.

At 1 o'clock a change was made in the death-watch. Deputy Hartke, who had been guarding Spies, reported that he had had a long talk with the Anarchists. Spies declared that he had no reason to be afraid, and then launched forth in a tirade against the courts. Rev. Dr. Bolton was received by Spies. The divine asked him if he would not accept of spiritual consolation. Spies declared that he had

"NO USE FOR A CLERGYMAN."

"I'll pray for you all night," cried the Doctor.

"Pray for yourself," returned Spies, "you need it more."

At eleven o'clock Spies lay down on his cot and closed his eyes, but he did not sleep. Several times he got up for a drink of water, but his every movement

BETOKENED A FIRMNESS

Which was astonishing. So it was with the rest of the Anarchists. Parsons had the nerve to entertain his guard with a song. His selection was "Annie Laurie." Unusual quiet prevailed in the jail. The only noise in the cell room was the low voices of a few deputies and the rapid ticking of a telegraph instrument, which was telling the world of the last hours of the four Anarchists.

THE ERECTION OF THE SCAFFOLD

Began 10:15 o'clock. The scaffold is the same used in the hanging of the three Italian murderers, but it has been lengthened for the purpose of swinging off the four Anarchists at once.

HABEAS CORPUS.

Parson's Plea to Stay Proceedings Denied.

CHICAGO, November 10.—Attorney Solomon appeared before Judge Tuley this afternoon and made his application for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of A. R. Parsons. His points were that the process was void, the record saying that the defendant was present when he was absent. He claimed that the order of the court directing the execution of the Anarchists on November 11th was unconstitutional and void, inasmuch as such final process must read: "In the name of the people of the State of Illinois." He read many decisions in support of his point. One of Mr. Solomon's main points was, that the Illinois Supreme Court should have returned the case to a lower court where the sentence should have again been pronounced. The neglect to do this, he argued, was a fatal error. The writ was refused by Judge Tuley.

IN CASE OF RIOT.

Extensive Arrangements Made by General Fitzsimmons.

CHICAGO, November 10.—"What preparations have you made against possible trouble as a result of to-morrow's execution?" asked a reporter, of General Fitzsimmons, commander of the first brigade of State troops.

"I can outline no plans," said the General. "It would not be policy. I will say, however, that 500 men of the First regiment, and 750 of the Second, can be thrown into the field for action on very short notice. Seven hundred to 800 men of the Third and Fourth regiments can be gotten here fully equipped for duty in three hours. I do not anticipate trouble, however."

"Will your men use blank cartridges or fire over the heads of the crowd in case of a riot, and the order to fire given."

"We have no blank cartridges," said General Fitzsummons, "and will not fire unless we fire to do execution.

NO DEMONSTRATION.

That is the Prediction of the Labor Union.

CHICAGO, November 10.—Officials of the Central Labor Union say that they did request all the members who could consistently do so, to make to-morrow a holiday, out of respect to their condemned brethern, but very few besides bakers would stop work. They deny that a grand street demonstration will be made.

A FIEND'S WORK.

Dynamite Discovered at Juror Brayton's Residence.

CHICAGO, November 10.—A bomb was found to-night in the rear of the residence of James Brayton, one of the jurors who convicted the Anarchists. He has received several threatening letters since the sentence was pronounced. Two officers were detailed to guard his house.

A TERRIBLE DEATH.

Lingg Escapes Beyond the Reach of Earthly Justice.

CHICAGO, November 10.—Louis Lingg, the bomb maker, has just committed suicide by shooting himself through the head while in his cell in the county jail. How he secured the weapon with which the deed was committed is a mystery, as his cell and clothing were again thoroughly searched yesterday, and to all appearances the guards that sat in front of the cell have watched him every minute. Lingg has always been regarded as the most desperate Anarchist of the lot. It was he who manufactured the bombs for the Haymarket riot, and in whose cell the bombs were found last Sunday.

A FAREWELL ADDRESS.

All day yesterday it was thought that Lingg acted differently from usual. On Tuesday night he gave out his "Farewell Address," which was written for the Alarm, Parsons' old paper. In it he recited at length his grievances, and closed as follows: "Now, with a last and earnest farewell to my friends and comrades, and with final wishes for their prosperity, I close with a view of certainty that I shall never have a chance of seeing them again. My beloved comrades, with earnest and hearty wishes for your future success in life, your comrade, Hoch Die Anarchy. LOUIS LINGG."

THE JAILER'S DISCOVERY.

When the jailer made an examination of his cell, on the floor he found the shell of a fulminating cap. The Sheriff said there had been undoubtedly dynamite in it.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

The supposition that he put the shell in his mouth and deliberately applied candle flame is undoubtedly correct. The explosion was terrific. It startled the officials, who thought it was a bomb, the noise was so great. The shell was so small as to allow smuggling it into the jail without any trouble.

TERRIBLE RESULTS.

From the effects of the explosion half his head was torn away. It is thus far impossible to get further particulars of the affair, as nobody but jail officials are allowed within the building.

LINGG'S APPEARANCE.

Immediately after the explosion Deputy O'Neill rushed into Lingg's cell, which was completely enveloped in smoke. There he found the young Anarchist lying on his back with great holes in his head, from which blood flowed in torrents. He was at once carried into the jail office and placed on a table. He was still breathing faintly, and while Dr. Gray was examining him he coughed slightly and blood poured again from his terrible wounds and from his mouth and nose. The physician said that the man could only live an hour or so at most, and he expected his death at any moment.

A TRAITOR IN THE CAMP.

The theory of the sheriff's office is that there is a traitor among the death watch who gave him the dynamite and cap.

BLACK CALLS.

Capt. Black called at the jail about 10 o'clock and went to the room where the doctors were working with Lingg. Lingg opened his eyes and looked at Captain Black and nodded his head. Rags and strings of flesh hung from Lingg's face.

MEDICAL OPINION.

At 10:15 Dr. Gray, after further examination, found that the tissue of the throat, neck and front of the jaw had been torn away. He administered stimulants but failed to arouse the man, yet the doctor states that there is a faint possibility that Lingg may yet live. Grinnell says in case he lives until to-morrow a stay of execution for him at least, will doubtless be granted.

LINGG STILL CONSCIOUS.

Captain Black came to the jail shortly after 1 o'clock. He went to the room where the doctors were working with Lingg.

"Poor fellow; poor fellow!" he said. "Can he recognize me?"

Lingg opened his eyes, looked steadfastly at the Captain and nodded his head. The rags and strings of flesh that hung to his face waved to and fro, and the Captain was almost overcome and left the room.

He called Prengar and said: "Doctor, don't you think a consultation of physicians ought to be held as to whether this man ought to be hung?"

"Impossible to hang him," said Doctor, "who ever heard of hanging a wounded man?"

"No, sir; it must not be," the surgeon said, as he returned to his grim task.

DEATH.

Louis Lingg died at 2:55 o'clock this afternoon. He presented a most horrible sight. All the lower part of his jaw was completely torn off and his thick auburn hair was matted with blood. The cheeks were torn out and hung down in jagged pieces on his neck. The teeth were knocked out and the gums torn away and a small stump of tongue appeared protruding from the mangled throat.

THE LATEST THEORY.

It is now learned that Lingg ended his life by means of a fulminating cap and not with a revolver, as first stated. He held the cap in his mouth and lit it with a candle, which was burning in the cell. The explosion was the first warning the jail people had. The guard seeing him with the candle in his hand supposed he was lighting a cigar.

EFFECT ON THE OTHERS.

When the explosion occurred all the Anarchists and prisoners were on their feet in an instant, and every one of them looked stunned and frightened. Bailiff Foltz at once gave orders to have every one of the cells searched, and Parsons was the first one a visit was made upon. When Engel was being searched he completely broke down and cried like a child. He is still so prostrated that he has not yet been brought back in his cell.

THE AGENT OF DEATH.

The agent which had served Lingg to accomplish this morning's work was a small fulminating cap a little over an inch long. It had been filled with fulminate of mercury, and a small fuse which is usually attached to these instruments of death, had been touched off by Lingg at the time the death-watch thought he was lighting a cigar.

When Lingg committed the deed he was lying on his face on his cot.

ANOTHER CAP FOUND.

After the affair, when his cell was searched, another candle was found. On the top of it, partly concealed by ends of wick, a second fulminating cap was found, so it is supposed that Lingg's attempted suicide was committed with a cap similar to the one in the hidden candles. The jailer said that the caps must have been put in by Lingg himself.

SCENE IN THE CELL.

The scene in Lingg's cell after the explosion was ghastly. Teeth, bits of jawbone, shreds of flesh and blood were scattered all over the narrow apartment. A little trail of blood marked the way over the stone flagging to the room where Lingg was carried.

OFFICIAL ALARM.

Within five minutes after the explosion, Fischer, Parsons and Engel were taken from their cells and searched in the jailer's private office. Their entire clothing was taken from them and new suits given them. The Sheriff says that Lingg was stripped and carefully searched yesterday and the day before.

EXCITEMENT OUTSIDE.

The news of Lingg's dreadful deed created the most profound excitement at the sheriff's office. Deputies crowded together to compare notes, and then separated to spread the report and forward intelligence or hold themselves in readiness for what might occur. A number of people of all descriptions crowded into the office eagerly inquiring as to the particulars of the deed. The news of Lingg's deed spread through the city like a flash, and every one is discussing it.

RENEWED PETITIONING.

Now that the bomb-maker has attempted his life, friends of the other Anarchists will redouble their efforts in behalf of the condemned men.

THE CORONER AT WORK.

Coroner Hertz empannelled a jury late this afternoon, consisting of merchants doing business within a few blocks of the jail. After viewing the corpse of Lingg, which lay in the bath room at the jail, the jury adjourned until next Wednesday.

THE MANDATE.

Careful Review of the Evidence Presented.

MENTION OF THE PETITIONS.

The Governor Regrets the Action He is Compelled to Take in the Matter.

Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD

SPRINGFIELD, November 10.—The following is the Governor's decision in full in the Anarchists case:

STATE OF ILLINOIS,
EXECUTIVE MANSION,
SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 10, 1887.

On the 20th day of August, 1886, in the Cook County Criminal Court, August Spies, Albert R. Parsons, Samuel Fielden, Michael Schwab, Adolph Fischer, George Engel and Louis Lingg were found guilty by a verdict of the jury, and afterwards sentenced to be hanged, for the murder of Mathias J. Degan. An appeal was taken from such finding and sentence to the Supreme Court. That Court, upon final hearing and after mature deliberation,

UNANIMOUSLY AFFIRMED

the judgment of the Court bolow. The case now comes before me by petition of the defendants on consideration as Governor of the State; if the letters of Albert Parsons, Adolph Fischer, George Engel and Louis Lingg, demanding "unconditional release," or as they express it "liberty or death" and protesting in against mercy on commutation of the sentenced produced against them can be considered petitions. The grounds insisted upon by the four above named persons could in no proper sense be deemed the exercise of constitutional power to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons unless used upon belief on my part of their entire innocence of the crime of which they stand convicted.

CAREFUL CONSIDERATION

of the evidence in the record of the trial of the parties, as well as of all that alleged and claimed for them outside of the record, has failed to produce upon my mind any impression tending to impeach the verdict of the jury or the judgment of the trial Court or of the Supreme Court affirming the guilt of all these parties. Satisfied, therefore, as I am,

OF THEIR GUILT,

I am precluded from considering the question of commutation of the sentences of A. R. Parsons, Adolph Fischer, George Engel and Louis Lingg, to imprisonment in the penitentiary, as they emphatically declare they will not accept such commutation. Samuel Fielden, Michael Schwab and August Spies, unite in a petition for

"EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY."

Fielden and Schwab in addition present separate and supplementary petitions for a commutation of their sentences. While, as said above, I am satisfied of the guilt of all the parties as found by the verdict of the jury, which was sustained by the judgment of the courts, most careful consideration of the whole subject leads me to the conclusion that the sentence of the law as to Samuel Fielden and Michael Schwab

MAY BE MODIFIED

as to each of them, in the interest of humanity and without doing violence to public justice, and as to said Samuel Fielden and Michael Schwab the sentence is commuted to imprisonment in the penitentiary

FOR LIFE.

As to the other above named defendants, I do not feel justified in interfering with the sentence of the court. While I would gladly have come to a different conclusion in regard to the sentence of defendants August Spies, Adolph Fischer, George Engel, Albert R. Parsons and Louis Lingg, I regret to say that under a solemn sense of the obligations of my office, I have been unable to do so.

(Signed) RICHARD J. OGLESBY,
Governor.

A PUBLIC PROTEST.

Demonstration by Socialists in New York.

NEW YORK, November 10.—The Federated German Trades, of this city, have arranged for a parade and demonstration to-night, as a protest against what they call the "Contemplated judicial murders in Chicago next Friday." Every drum will be muffled and every instrument of music draped in black.

POLICE PREPARATIONS.

Schlepit, editor of a labor paper, made application to the police to-day for permission for 10,000 Socialists to parade to-night to express disapproval of the hanging of the Chicago Anarchists. In view of Lingg's suicide Superintendent Murray summoned his captains and gave them specific instructions how to act. They will furnish a detail of men, and all the reserves will be in readiness for instant service.

THE DEMONSTRATION.

The Federation Trades Unions and sympathizers with Socialism, paraded to-night in protestation of the hanging of the Anarchists at Chicago to-morrow. No disturbance occurred. A long line of men, 30 000 strong passed down Broad street with red and black flags, all heavily draped in crape, and bands playing the Dead March from Saul and the Marseille. Transparencies bore inscriptions far more blood-thirsty and threatening than the general conduct or appearance of the marching men.

Were these: "Blood for blood," "Proletariat," "Beware of the Insurrection," "The Gallows to the Death," "Seven Noble Men You Kill, Savages Beware," "Bombard us and we'll Dynamite You," "Wage-slaves the day of your Liberation is at Hand."

THE BOMB-THROWER.

He is Said to be Living in New York City.

NEW YORK, November 11.—Attorney A. H. Wagener has sent a telegram to Captain Black, in Chicago, stating positively that the man who threw the bomb at the Haymaaket is in New York City. Wagener was seen by a reporter early this (Friday) morning, and said that Franz Mayhoff, in Sing Sing for attempting to defraud the Greenwich Insurance Company had sworn to an affidavit in which he stated that a man named Klimann Scheutz, with whom he had become acquainted in January, had told him that he was present at the Haymarket meeting and had THROWN THE BOMB.

Wagener says that he has great faith in the affidavit and that he asked Superintendent Murray to have searched the premises occupied by Scheutz, but that the Superintendent refused unless a warrent was sworn out. Mr. Wagener says that he has no interest in the case except from common humanity. Scheutz it is said has been known to have been an officer in one of the foremost societies of Anarchists in the country.

The paymaster

WASHINGTON, November 10.—The Department of Agriculture reports the yield of corn 19.9 bushels per acre on about 73,000,000 acres, or 1,453,000,000 bushels. About 5,000,000 acres is reported as abandoned before ripening. On the acreage planted the average would be 18.6 bushels per acre, the same as in 1881. The final records will be changed only by slight adjustments. The quality of the crop is much lower than usual in the dry region and the proportion of merchantable corn is considerably below the average.

THE POTATO YIELD

Has been reduced, first by drought in the West, and later by rot, mainly in the Atlantic States. It is about the same as in 1881, or 54 bushels average per acre, making the crop about 184,000,000 bushels, against 163,000,000 bushels last year.

TOBACCO YIELD

Per acre is very low in shipping and cutting. The leaf belt, especially in the West, will make scarcely more than a third of the crop. The yield of the cigar leaf is nearly normal.

OUR NEW ROAD.

Promises that Work will Soon be Started.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 10.—The columns of a local paper to-morrow will have the following: Lyman Bridges has gone to Los Angeles in the interest of the new Salt Lake and Los Angeles line, supposed to have been ordered built by the Union Pacific. Mr. Bridges has been prominently connected with transcontinental railway projects for some years past, being chief engineer of the United States Central and other lines, which never progressed beyond the surveying stage. The beginning of active work on the Salt Lake and Los Angeles line is promised for an early date.

SAD ACCIDENT.

Col. Abbott Seriously Injured by a Runaway.

MOUNTAIN VIEW, November 10.—Colonel J. E. Abbott was seriously, if not fatally wounded to-day. While riding with Wm. M. Garliepp, a runaway team belonging to S. B. Emmerson dashed wildly into their carriage from behind, smashing the vehicle to pieces and piercing the body of Colonel Abbott with the pole. Garliepp was also badly hurt on the head and face.

A GRIM DISCOVERY.

Skeletons Unearthed on B Street, San Diego.

SAN DIEGO, November 10.—To-day, while workingmen were engaged on B street excavating for a culvert which extends along that thoroughfare, four coffins containing human bones were unearthed. Their presence is a mystery, as the old residents have no knowledge of a burying ground in that locality.

Drowned.

PORTLAND, November 10.—This afternoon James Johnson, a boatswain on the British ship Ann Rosa, fell overboard and was drowned. Johnson was out on a swinging scaffold scraping off the hull of the vessel, and losing his balance fell into the river. The body was recovered.

Dimmig's Defenders.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 10.—Application was made to the Superior Court to-day for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of John A. Dimmig, who is held on suspicion of complicity in the Benhayon case. The matter will be heard to-morrow.

Robinson in Trouble.

PORTLAND, November 10.—Attachment suits were commenced against B. Robinson and wife of this city, yesterday, by Murphy, Grant & Co., M. Cohn & Co. and other San Francisco merchants, to secure payment for merchandise sold and delivered, amounting to $37,344.

FLORIDA.

Anything but a Flowery Letter.

A well known business man of this city has received the following letter from a friend in Florida. It is so self-explanatory that it needs no comment:

EUSTIS LAKE, W. FLA.,
October 31, 1887.

DEAR SIR:—After making arrangement to go to Florida your letter of September 21, 1884, was handed me, giving your ideas about what might have been done with my cream separator. I now see how I missed it; for I could not have done worse. I did even well enough till the frost of 1886 hit us, and Florida has been going down ever since. She is like an old "granny"—something out of fix all the time. First it is the big freeze which froze the oranges; then it is a little freeze which killed the early vegetables; now it is yellow fever, and last and worst of all is the political and social intolerance enforced against the "d——d Yankee." I am sick and disgusted with the whole business, and still I must live in a mild climate to enjoy any health at all. Have you any busines chances for anybody except those made of gold? If I can sell my property for anything near what it has cost me I could get to California with $3000. But as things look now I don't know as I can sell at all. If I went I should probably have to leave all. I could only command in ready cash $1000. Should prefer something of a supervisional nature requiring little or no capital at first. If you have anything to suggest I should be glad to know it. My wife joins me in kind regards to you.

Yours very truly,

ABBEY OF POOR COLLETINES.

Articles of Incorporation Filed Yesterday.

The Los Angeles Abbey of Poor Colletines filed articles of incorporations yesterday with the County Clerk. These state that the object of this association is not for pecuniary profit, but for the promotion of a religious life by its members and for the exercise of charity by them. It is announced that the intention of the directors is to establish an Abbey wherein the members of said order may sojourn in a religious life and and practice charity, especially in the teaching of poor children. The term for which the abbey is to exist is fifty years, and the directors are: Catherine Anne O'Neill, Annie Doyle and Agnes Campbell.

ST. VINCENT'S HOTEL.

Subscriptions Coming in Slowly—Board Meeting in Prospect.

A HERALD reporter called yesterday on Mr. E. W. Jones to see what had been done as regards the proposed St. Vincent's Hotel. He was informed that no action would be taken until the return of Mr. Hervey Lindley, the Secretary, from San Francisco, and then a board meeting would doubtless be called. He stated that everything at present depended on the efforts of the committee appointed to collect subscriptions for stock, and as far as is known the contributions are coming in slowly. At the Board meeting, some action will be taken as regards future moves, and endeavors will be made to have the promised payments made as soon as possible.

Broke His Leg.

Mr. John H. Pohlhous, of the firm of Pohlhous & Vollmer, broke his leg yesterday on Second street, near the corner of Spring. He stepped out of the road of a buggy that was coming along and slipped on the iron track of the cable road, turning his foot under him and breaking the leg above the ankle. At first it was supposed the the buggy had run over him and the driver, Jim Cussan, was arrested, but released, as Mr. Pohlhous stated he fell over and the buggy did not touch him. He was taken into the tent at the corner, where Dr. Allen was immediately called, and in company with Officer Gus Smith, conveyed the injured man home in a carriage. He lives at the Argyle Hotel, corner of Second and Olive streets. As he is an old man the doctor says he will be confined to his bed for some time.

"Caught in a Corner."

On Monday night of next week M. B. Curtis opens at the Grand Opera House in his new play, Caught in a Corner. This met with a great success in New York at the Fourteenth Street Theater, where it ran for a long time to full houses. The plot of the place is based on a deal in wheat in Wall street and it is said that the situations are at times startling and at others extremely funny. Mr. Curtis takes the part of "Isaac Greenhood," who is a very different sort of a man from "Samuel of Posen," in which character he is well known here and elsewhere. The sale of seats for next week is already very large and good houses are assured.

TELEPHONE SERVICE.

A Vigorous Protest From the Board of Trade.

It appears that the complaints in relation to the poor service of the telephone company are becoming more frequent, and it is seldom that parties who have telephones in their offices are heard to say that the service is satisfactory. The Board of Trade has taken the matter in hand, and has forwarded the following letter to the manager of the company:

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 10, 1887.

Howard Keyser, Esq., Manager Sunset Telegraph-Telephone Company, Los Angeles, California:

Dear Sir: I am instructed by the Directors of this Board of Trade to communicate with you, and to say in the interests of our merchants and business men, who are, with but few exceptions, subscribers to your system, that it has been of late, and is now, fearfully and wonderfully operated

So numerous and universal are the complaints becoming that it is well nigh impossible that you, as manager, are not to a certain extent acquainted with the dissatisfaction that exists.

We are fully aware that a long time ago certain improvements were made by your company, that were intended to enlarge the capacity of your office for work and to facilitate its business. For a time it did probably well enough, but it is a self-evident fact that to-day the service your company is giving our people is far, very far, from satisfactory.

If they were not paying you your own charges (which, I will add, are considered by very many far from reasonable) and agreeing to and submitting to all your requirements, it might possibly be out of place to complain; but, as the opposite is the case, and they do pay your tariff and submit to your requirements, they have the right to protest when their grievances are well founded, and ask of your company such improvements in the operative or mechanical departments, or both, of your office as will give them good service for good pay.

It would seem that, cognizant as you must be of the ienfficiency of the service your company is rendering your subscribers, that some effort should be made to remedy the evil, without having the matter formally brought to your attention; but as it appears to be necessary that the subject should be brought to the notice of your company in that way, this Board has instructed me to address you.

We hope it is in your power to make such alterations as will improve the service, without referring to headquarters; if not we desire that you lay the subject before the proper officials at your earliest convenience,

I remain, very respectfully,

(Signed) A. M. Lawrence, Secretary.

Our Cause a Righteous One.

The Pasadena Star has this to say:

> Joseph D. Lynch has departed for Washington where he hopes to arrive in time to be allowed to occupy the Congressional seat the voters of this district allotted to General Vandever. He may get Vandever's place. It depends entirely upon what a Democratic House may do. If that body concludes the country wants Lynch's vote he will be seated, otherwise they will allow Vandever to retain it.

We do not refer to this for the purpose of discussing the case itself before the public. But we do most emphatically deny that any one in interest desires to win, excepting in so far as the cause may be just. We do not think General Vandever or any other candidate for office should be allowed to hold an office to which he seems to be elected, because of the disfranchisement of nearly two hundred Democratic voters by the arbitrary, illegal and unjust action of another official.

But to return, to what was in our mind: It is a most gratuitous piece of hypocrisy and pharisaism on the part of the Star to pretend that it thinks for a moment a contestant could be seated on such grounds as are alleged in the paragragh quoted above. The editor of the Star, if he knows anything, knows that the voters of the United States are very nearly equally divided in almost all sections of the Union. He must know that the Democratic members of the Lower House of the National Congress, are as honest, as honorable, as high-minded, as fair as their colleagues on the opposite side of the hall where they assemble. While we know that in post bellum days, when party spirit ran at white heat, the party whose principles the Star professes did some very queer things in the way of unseating Democrats in the House of Representatives, yet we have always charged such unfair acts to the bitterness of party feeling engendered by a long, costly and internecine war. We do believe that for the most part this bitterness has been sweetened by a better patriotism, and that this hot hate has been cooled by the lapse of years. We do not believe that the average Republican member of the House of Representatives to-day would allow himself to be guided by party feeling or party interest in deciding so grave a case as this. Nor do we believe the Star will find any great ready acquiescence in its own party to that narrow view that half the legislators of this great Nation will lend themselves to so base an act as that paper outlines.

It is quite true that present appearances indicate a strong possibility of the next Presidential election going into the House. The closeness of the vote in many States, the presence of Prohibition and Labor in the field, with independent organizations, the probability of an American ticket, and the endless combinations made possible by all these factions point to this as a thing far from impossible. It is also true that with Indiana and California voting with the Republicans their party has a majority in the House. Once more it is true that the reconstruction of these two States by giving two contestants in California and one in Indiana their seats, this majority in the House of Representatives would be transferred to the Democratic side. Yet we believe the House will seat the contestants not with an eye on the Presidency, but with an eye single to justice. The other cases we do not feel familiar enough with to risk an opinion. But the case in the Sixth District we know to be a righteous one.

A SERIOUS error is made as to the New York City elections so far as Nicoll and Fellows are concerned. Republican papers, always ready to cry fraud where a Democrat is concerned, assert that Nicoll was defeated and Fellows elected by the friends of the "Boodle" Aldermen in Gotham. Here are the facts: Martine was District Attorney of the city, Fellows was his First Assistant and Nicoll his Second Assistant. Through these three men the thievish ring was broken up, and nearly all the rogues sent to Sing Sing. So popular were the men who did this service—and they were all Democrats—that Martine was nominated by his party for Judge of the Court of Sessions; and so hopeless was the task of defeating him, the Republicans, and all the other parties, large and small, endorsed the nomination. The Democracy put up Fellows to succeed Martine as District Attorney; and the Republicans knowing that no straight play would succeed against him, tried a political dodge to defeat him. They took up Nicoll, Democrat as he was, and ran him against his former colleague. The Irving Hall Democrats went over to Nicoll, and several sideshows joined with these. Then in order to succeed with this bolting Democrat and the motley crowd which followed him, Nicoll was proclaimed as the great "Boodler" convicter. The facts of history in the case are these: Fellows was the man who presented every one of those dishonest Aldermen to the jury excepting one. That one was Cleary, and his case was presented by Nicoll. Fellows obtained a verdict of guilty on every case he presented, including that of Sharp. In the one case which Mr. Delancey Nicoll summed up, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

OUR evening contemporary is dead wrong. THE HERALD does not hate the Prohibitionists. We do not agree with these people in their views, but we respect them as honest. Nor is our anxiety any greater lest the flow of "likker"—whatever is reached by spelling the word so—be curtailed than is that of our highly esteemed neighbor. Our opposition to Prohibition is based on a general principle. It is known as personal rights, or personal liberty. It is an elementary, a fundamental, and an important principle. As to liquor we do not entertain any notion that its use as a beverage is necessarily an evil thing. On the contrary, we think it a beneficial thing, if not abused. One of our objections to the Republican party is that on this point it does not deal honestly. This is our point of sympathy with the Prohibition party. They have trusted to Republican promises so long and been so often deceived, we now rejoice to see them go off on their "own hook," and trust to their own principles. Now, will the evening contemporary as fully and honestly set forth its views on the whole question, tell us how much it loves or hates the Prohibition party and how much "likker" it wants to see flow?

THE tide of tourists reaching California at the present time is very large. It is stated on estimates based on the best information that no less than one thousand souls arrived in this city on Wednesday. A San Francisco paper gives the following official figures of the arrivals in the State over the A. & P. road for the last week in October.

Date.	South from Barstow.	North from Barstow.
October 23d	392	54
October 24th	92	57
October 25th	544	92
October 26th	131	43
October 27th	127	21
October 28th	230	19
October 29th	283	122

Here is an average of 315 per day for the week. That is, by one of the three lines of travel by which Eastern people arrive in the State. The Sunset route does not bring less than the one whose business is quoted above; and by the Union and Central Pacific route nearly as many come as by either of the others. This would indicate that nearly one thousand a day get here. It is but the beginning of winter in the North, and these are but the vanguard of an army, the main body of which will get along here a few weeks later. An unusually large number of these are coming to stay.

ERRONEOUS dispatches came over the wires the night before last referring to the New York elections. These were corrected by later advices, but some of the papers gave the incorrect returns. THE HERALD carefully printed the true figures. The two statements caused some confusion in the minds of the public, and in order to set matters straight, we repeat the two in full. Here is our correct message:

> Approximate complete returns to the Argus from all counties in the State give Cook, (Dem.) for Secretary of State, 16,466 plurality over Grant (Rep.) a net Democratic gain of 5332, compared with Hill's plurality in 1886.

Here is the erroneous dispatch:

> Approximated complete returns to the Argus from all counties in the State give Cook, (Dem.) for Secretary of State, 1066 plurality over Grant (Rep.), a net Democratic loss of 468, compared with Hill's plurality in 1886.

THE Czar is about to make a journey to Berlin and visit the aged Emperor of Germany. This meeting of the two men, who above all others control the peace of Europe cannot be without excellent results. The Emperor William has at all times manifested a most pacific spirit where peace and honor have not been conflicting propositions. As this grandest figure in European politics finds himself drawing nearer the end of his long, eventful and successful career, he displays still a stronger desire for peace. In this meeting with the Czar, no doubt, he will use all the arguments at his command, and all the influence which centers in him personally, and as the head of the powerful German Empire to secure tranquility during the few remaining years that may be left him.

REALLY it begins to look as if the German Empire might be deprived of the Crown Prince. "Our Fritz" has manifested traits of character which pointed to him as a fitting successor of his great and good father whose sands of life are, sad to say, so nearly run out. The death of the Prince would at the demise of the Emperor pass the crown to a young head. In the event of Frederick being the successor of the aged Emperor William the guidance of the great Empire would still have been in hands directed by the wisdom of mature years. Should the grandson, rather than the son of the reigning monarch succeed, such would not be the case. The loss of the Crown Prince would be, therefore, most deplorable from all points of view.

GOVERNOR OGLESBY has exercised his prerogative in the case of the Chicago Anarchists. Four of them are to be hanged to-day and two commuted to life imprisonment. The seventh took his case in his own hands yesterday morning and settled it in a characteristic manner by shattering his head into fragments with a small sized bomb. The end of the tearful tragedy which was enacted in Haymarket Square over a year ago has been reached. The outraged law will be vindicated and a terrible lesson will be taught to the unquiet wretches who may hereafter think of introducing nihilistic methods into this country. These will find that whilst the largest liberty exists in the United States, practice that may have some basis of excuse in despotic countries will not be permitted here. The vindication of the law in this instance is not only demanded by sound principles of justice, but as a matter of public policy. Anarchism, if not arrested by the terrible public retribution which will overtake the men who expiate their crimes on the scaffold to-day, will be stamped out at all hazards by a people who behold with abhorrence the introduction into this country of methods that are at war with American order and American civilization.

A BADLY informed Republican paper of San Francisco, in referring to the shooting of a Negro striker on a plantation in Louisiana remarks: "It is the usual precursor of a Democratic election in the South." A few days before the election the following dispatch was sent to the press of the country:

> THIBODEAUX, La., November 4.—This morning about 10 o'clock a Negro striker, named Moses Pugh, shot and seriously wounded Mr. Richard Foret, a prominent planter, near Lockport. When a deputy sheriff attempted to arrest him he was surrounded by about 150 of his friends, who defied the authorities.

The Republicans claim all the colored vote of the South as theirs. What then is this episode a precursor of? As well say it was a Republican plot to kill off Democratic voters.

THE Sacramento Bee says:

> If a gold mine covered the whole surface of Northern California the Eastern people who are impetuously rushing for the South would probably pause as they pass through on their pilgrimage.

Yes; but the mine does not cover any very large part of the Northern Gold Belt. The swallows fly south in the winter time, and would not stop if the cold air were full of flies. The tourist is much like the swallow. It is climate he is in search of. Many of these "people who are impetuously rushing South" have a good deal of gold already, but it does them little good in their cold climate. It is life, not gold, they are looking for, and they know where to come for it.

FELLOW-CITIZENS,

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—This is not intended as a spread-eagle oration or as a sample of our "Queen's English," but rather to remind you that it is growing late in the afternoon of 1887; that only 60 days remain to you for the accumulation of wealth before you must make up your annual balance sheet. Having full confidence in the proposition that all Yankees love the "dollars of their daddies," and feeling absolutely positive that a rich return of those "daddy dollars" awaits all who invest a proportionate sum in the cream of all tracts in the southern part of the city—namely,

THE NADEAU ORANGE TRACT,

We most confidently invite you to do a little business with us. Bear with us while we tell you that the coming new boulevard of the city,

Central Avenue,

Will undoubtedly within a short time rival Figueroa street. That it is four miles long reaching from First street to the Ballona Harbor Railroad. That it is eighty feet wide and has a horse-car line the entire length (in course of construction). That in this beautiful NADEAU ORANGE TRACT, on the corner of Jefferson street and Central avenue, your townsman MR. DODSWORTH has purchased six beautiful lots and agrees with us to build at once a house to cost from $10,000 to $15,000. That several others have bought lots there with similar intentions, and we confidently expect to have the handsomest suburban tract in Los Angeles.

Now, time and space grows short, and we can only add: NOW IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY! We are UNDERSELLING EVERYBODY in the neighborhood; giving LONGER TIME, EASIER TERMS, and generally making it easy for the dear public to get a home, a lot for investment, or, if you please, to sell to the next man at a profit. Call and get price list, maps and general information of yours truly, is frequently the exclamation of one lady to another. The fact is not a pleasant one to have mention, but still the act may be a kindly one, for it sets the one addressed to thinking, apprises her of the fact that she is not in good health, and leads her to seek a reason therefor. Pallor is almost always attendant upon the first stages of consumption. The system is enfeebled, and the blood is impoverished. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will act as a tonic upon the system, will enrich the impoverished blood, and restore roses to the cheek.

How Pale You Are!

"I Love Her Better than Life."

Well, then, why don't you do something to bring the roses to her cheeks and the light to her eyes? Don't you see she is suffering from nervous debility, the result of female weakness? A bottle of Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" will brighten those pale cheeks and send new life through that wasting form. If you love her, take heed.

If you have catarrh, use the surest remedy —Dr. Sage's.

A young lady in one of our prominent institutions of learning, who was a great favorite, not only among her classmates, but with all the faculty, was obliged to give up her studies and return home seriously ill. Chronic nervous sick headache, accompanied by impaired digestion, by which the circulation and nutrition of the brain was impaired, rendered her very miserable. A physician was called, who apparently, not understanding the nature of her ailment, failed to afford relief. A friend who had been similarly afflicted, and found immediate relief by using Frese's Hamburg Tea, recommended the same to her. She made trial of it and to her great joy found a decided improvement as the result. After a few days use of this popular remedy she was fully restored.

"The Dance of Death."

Now that the excitement occasioned by the advent of this publication is at a fever heat, and the critics, great or small, are exchanging their broadsides, the fact still remains that people will dance; and when the blood is heated and the pores are open, a sudden draft or slight exposure will cause many to contract colds, which, if neglected, will surely lead to serious results. Frese's Hamburg Tea is a sovereign remedy for congestion, biliousness, colds, etc.

Nipped in the Bud.

Is it not better to nip consumption, the great scourge of humanity, in the bud, than to try to stay its progress on the brink of the grave. A few doses of California's most useful production, SANTA ABIE, the king of Consumption, will relieve, and a thorough treatment will cure. Nasal catarrh, too often the forerunner of consumption, can be cured by CALIFORNIA CAT-R-CURE. These remedies are sold and fully warranted by C. H. Hance, 77 and 79 South Spring street, at $1, or three for $2.50.

"Dear mamma," said a smart little cherub of five or six summers, "do get some of Frese's Hamburg Tea—I don't like to take any other medicine—I always feel so well after taking a cup of it. It never makes me sick like those nasty pills."

MR. A. HIGGINS, of Wyoming, N. Y., says he had the piles for nearly 40 years, and was cured by using Gilmore's Pile Specific.—C. F. Heinzeman, agent, Los Angeles.

SEMI-TROPIC
LAND AND WATER CO.

29,000 Acres 29,000

Of the best citrus land in the State offered for sale in twenty-acre blocks, and can be bought in five, ten, fifteen or twenty acre subdivisions.

Lytle Creek Water Piped on Each Lot.

Avenues 150 feet in Width Traverse the Tract.

Water Furnished from a Covered Cement Ditch

This land lies on the elevated plain directly west of San Bernardino City. The plain is a vast elevated tableland with just enough of gentle undulation to break the monotony of the landscape.

Owing to the elevation, frost is practically unknown. Flowers in myriads bloom during the winter, the tenderest tomato sprigs are unscathed by frost, and the orange blossoms bloom in beauty throughout the winter. The view is one of the noblest and most picturesque in nature. Each twenty-acre lot has a fine road at each end.

There are 29,000 acres in this tract, but 10,000 acres only are as yet surveyed. The town, Rialto, is located near the center of this 10,000-acre tract, and on the California Central.

The California Central and the Southern Pacific both traverse this great tract, and in all probability the Southern Pacific's parallel route will soon add a third railroad to this princely citrus tract. The western line of the tract is about two miles distant from the San Bernardino Court House.

This plain grows as fine oranges as the world has ever seen and the finest quality of citrus fruit generally, as buyers can see for themselves. There is no better raisin grape land in California. In fact all sub-tropical productions flourish to perfection.

THE BALL.

An Attendance of Representative Citizens.

SOME OF THE COSTUMES WORN.

The Social Season Successfully Inaugurated—A Brilliant Affair.

One of the most brilliant episodes in the social history of Los Angeles is the Grand Charity Ball given by the Hebrew Ladies' Benevolent Society at Armory Hall last night. For some weeks past the milliners and modistes have been kept busy by the countless orders poured in upon them by the necessity of the occasion, and that their efforts have been crowned with success was proved by a visit to the ball-room last night. Costumes which would have aroused the admiration of a Worth, showed to advantage the graceful contours of women "wondrous fair," and priceless gems glittered resplendently from throats that rivalled the first flakes of the winter's snow in their whiteness That la creme de la creme of Los Angeles society was present was evidenced by a glance around the crowded hall. Men known in business circles as successful financiers, and gigantic operators in the marts of life, some of them grown gray with a life of endless toil, stood chatting pleasantly together in the nooks and corners, while on the vantage ground in the centre, the youth and beauty of Los Angeles glided to and fro in the mazes of the dance with all the courtly grace of refinement and innate high breeding.

THE OPENING MARCH.

It was half past nine ere the proceedings were formally opened, and at that hour Meine Bros. orchestra struck up a tuneful march and the grand promenade began. About ninety couples participated in this movement, which was executed with an esprit that showed that its participators had graced many an other similar scene, and as the long line passed slowly up and down the brilliantly lighted room, words of admiration broke unconsciously from the lips of the onlookers who surveyed the dazzling scene. In the meantime the guests were flocking in, in one continuous stream, and closely veiled and berobed figures disappeared quickly into the spacious cloakroom to emerge a minute afterwards in all the glory of their evening attire. Ushers flitted noiselessly to and fro, and the genial master of ceremonies and his untiring aides-de-camp worked with a zeal worthy of the cause in which they were enlisted. Fifteen minutes lasted the tuneful promenade, and then the brief interlude which preceded the first dance was devoted to the interchange of courtesies between those acquainted with each other and the introductions of those, who, comparatively strangers in the city, could discern but few familiar faces in the concourse around them. Programmes were produced, and gilded pencils noted engagements for future dances, some of the

"FAIREST OF THE FAIR"

Being so besieged with applications that they were compelled to make many a manly heart unhappy by a reply which was rendered compulsorily negative by the limited list at their disposal.

It was near the hour of 10 ere the strains of the first dance sounded, and there was no lack of participants for the lancers which was presented. From that hour until the close this morning gayety reigned supreme, the festivities being at their climax at midnight, at which hour fully 250 guests were within the building.

LIST OF THE GUESTS.

The following are the names of some of the most prominent citizens who were present, necessarily incomplete owing to the difficulty of the task:

MORE MECHANICS WANTED.

What an Architect Thinks About this Matter.

I beg leave to put forward a suggestion in regard to the question of the demand and supply of first-class house mechanics in this city and county. In the first place, if the count is made of all men now working as carpenters, without reference to skill, I should say that there were enough and "to spare to the neighbors," for more incompetent men there never were than come now crowding into the places which should be occupied by mechanics. If the talk over this question does no more than raise the standard of mechanical labor it will be a satisfaction. As to supply and demand I would suggest that it be ascertained beyond question what amount of work is at the present time ready for mechanics and the amount contemplated for this winter, under reliable auspices, there from the principal contractors and builders find out as nearly as possible the number of first-class mechanics available. If the result of this inquiry should show as I am led by personal experience to believe it will, that there is not at the present time sufficient skilled labor in any of the building trades to do the amount of work expected, and that in consequence building will be retarded and postponed, then let no stone be unturned to make the facts known. After consulting with the owners of 22 large buildings in my charge, ten of which are frame hotels, costing from $20,000 to $150,000, now underway and to be immediately commenced, and several of the principal builders having contracts for buildings, already commenced amounting to nearly a million dollars worth of work. I think I am safe in agreeing to place within the next thirty days one hundred skilled carpenters.

I think the avoidance of delay of sufficient interest to property owners and those contemplating building enterprises to invite them to furnish every detail of information in their power. Very truly,

JOHN C. PELTON, Jr.,
Architect.

Death of Dr. C. T. Widney.

Many of our people will remember Dr. C. T. Widney, who for some time owned Sulphur Wells, now known as Santa Fe Springs, near this city. The following notice of his death and biographical sketch is furnished by a relative of the deceased:

Dr. Charles T. Widney, late of Fulton Wells, was born at Millport, Muhlenburg county, Ky., December 2, 1841. Died at the residence of his cousin, Dr. J. P. Widney, Los Angeles, November 6, 1887.

Dr. C. T. Widney was the only son of James H. Widney of Owensboro, Ky., grand son of Rev. Richard Tydings, deceased, of Kentucky. He was educated in Owensboro, Ky., and at the Franklin College of Lancaster City, Pa. Studied medicine under Dr. W. D. Stirman of Owensboro, Ky Graduated at the Louisville Medical College, Ky, served four years in the Confederate army. Was surgeon of the Cumberland Battery. Was taken prisoner at Fort Donaldson and sent to Camp Chase, but was shortly afterwards released, as were all the surgeons. Returned to Virginia, where he served on the staff of General Jenkins and in the hospitals during the war. At the end of the war he returned to Kentucky with license to preach. Although in feeble health he was received in the Louisville Conference of the M. E. Church South, where he served four years and was very successful and much beloved. Married during his ministry Miss Alice Weis, daughter of Judge D. K. Weis, of Flemingsburg, Ky. He was compelled to cease preaching on account of a diseased throat, and returned to the practice of medicine, first in the Louisville Hospital, then in Shelbyville, Ky. From Shelbyville he removed to St. Louis, Mo., where he spent ten or twelve years in a private hospital or sanitarium, where he nearly wore out his life trying to save inebriates and those of the morphine habit, and was successful in many cases. Had to give it up on account of his health. After trying other places in Missouri, he was advised by Bishop Bowman, of the M. E. Church, to go to Los Angeles, Cal He came to Los Angeles about four years ago, not expecting to meet with any acquaintances, but fortunately met with four cousins and families who received him with open arms, and who have treated him not only as a cousin but as a brother and more than a brother. His health improved for some time, but after taking an interest in the Fulton Wells he overworked himself and was stricken down with fever, which, after several months suffering, resulted in his death. He lived a Christian life and died a peaceful death. He had been successful in financial operations and left his family in good circumstances.

In a Hurry to Get Here.

Yesterday, a well known citizen in passing the new depot encountered an old couple who had arrived the evening previous in an excursion from the East. They came from Minneapolis, and the man is 76 years old. He has the advantage in years, but very little of his wife. They had come over the U. P. and C. P. route and came directly to Los Angeles. So greatly charmed were they with the bright day and the clear atmosphere, that they took a little excursion about the city, then purchased a ticket back to their old home, in order at once to sell out all they have in the world, and remove here to spend all the rest of their days. Their haste is in order that they may make the trip home and get back here before the really bad weather of the winter sets in in Minnesota.

Will Remove.

The Southern California Land Bureau of 316 North Main street has leased the premises at No. 3 South Fort street, next door to the Mayor's office, for a terms of years and will move into its new quarters on the 15th instant. This corporation has an extremely large list of properties in all the best neighborhoods for sale, and when it has become settled in its new quarters it will be able to satisfy everybody.

A THREATENED BLOCKADE.

The Southern Pacific Has Too Much Business on Hand.

The Southern Pacific Company is almost threatened with a serious freight blockade. For some time the amount of freight received has been sufficient to seriously embarrass the capacity of the road, but at present matters are, as stated, assuming serious proportions, and considerable difficulty is experienced in handling it.

The yard master reported yesterday that he had no more room for the storing of cars in his yard, which is totally blocked. Under going repairs in the repair shops are 175 cars with over one hundred men at work upon them. The report of Master Mechanic Greagg shows that there are ninety-six engines in use on this division, and that eighty men are kept at work repairing others all the time.

The passenger traffic is also, more than can be handled with ease. The waiting-room of the depot yesterday presented a very crowded appearance, and so did the platform. Every train going out or coming in is loaded to overflowing with an eager crowd of sight-seers, speculators and health-seekers, and it takes all the passenger coaches of the company to carry these people to their destinations.

A DUMMY ROAD.

A Belt Railroad to be Built Immediately.

Captain Gross and Mr. Crow, the proprietors of the dummy railroad running from this city to Glendale, have just returned from a trip of inspection along the line of the route already surveyed, and of a proposed line to Eagle Rock.

These gentlemen have decided to make this road a good investment, accordingly they have determined to extend it from a point three miles from Glendale, on the San Fernando wagon road, direct to Eagle Rock valley, where they will turn and run back to Glendale, forming a belt five miles in circumference in addition to the road already surveyed.

The rolling-stock, ties, etc., will be on hand in two weeks' time and soon everything will be finished. The additional part of this road depends on the size of the bonus the property-owners along the line are willing to pay. Captain Cross says that many of them have signified their willingness to subscribe a good round sum, and he feels confident that everything will proceed rapidly.

Eastern Star.

One week from to-morrow night, at the Masonic Temple, corner of Spring and First streets, the Order of the Eastern Star will give a grand public installation, followed by a lunch and a general social good time. The following officers will be installed: Worthy Matron, Mrs. Parker; Worthy Patron, Mr J. C. Salisbury; Associate Patron, Mrs. MacKenzie; Treasurer, Mrs. Salisbury; Secretary, Miss Gertrude Fleming; Conductress, Mrs. Heaver; Associate Conductress, Mrs. Lottie Wackerbarth.

Warner and Nazro's Lower California Excursion.

Grand excursion to Lower Baja, California; round trip $18. Round trip train will leave First street depot, Los Angeles, 8:30 Monday morning, November 14th. Will visit the celebrated cities of Ensenada, San Carlos, Punta Bando and San Quintin. For further particulars, call upon Warner and Nazro, office opposite Raymond Hotel, Pasadena. Cal. Long & Everingham, 116 West First street, Los Angeles, headquarters for property on the Santa Fé Route.

Sent to the Asylum.

Nelly Ryan was committed to the Insane Asylum at Stockton yesterday by Judge Gardiner. Nelly had been been living in a house of ill-fame and had been dissipating for some time. About ten days ago she developed symptoms of insanity and became violent and threatened to commit suicide. She labored under a delusion that she was to be killed and cut up, and she thought that she heard voices in the walls proclaiming the hour when she was to be killed. Deputy Sheriff Benedict took her up last night.

Thanksgiving Dinner.

A regular home Thanksgiving dinner is being prepared by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association for the members of that organization who are away from home. The young men who are fortunate enough, through their connection with the Association, to receive invitations may for at least one day in the year feel at home, though in a strange land. Interesting exercises will accompany the dinner.

Robbed of His Valuables.

Last night Thomas Iadin called at the police station and stated that some thief or thieves had entered his room, which is above the kitchen of the Santa Fe hotel, and had purloined a quantity of clothes, some money and several miscellaneous articles. His opinion was that the robbery must have been committed by some person or persons who knew the ins and outs of the place. He described the person suspected, who had been engaged at the hotel as dishwasher on Monday, but quit the same day and has not since been seen.

Suit for Damages.

Mary Meyers commenced suit in the Superior Court yesterday against the Central Railroad Company to recover $5000 damages. She alleges in her complaint that on the 14th day of August last she was riding on one of defendant's cars, and, desiring to alight on Ninth street, gave the proper signal. As she stepped from the car the driver started the horses and she was thrown to the ground and severely bruised about her side and otherwise injured. She asks damages in $5000 for her injuries.

Amusements.

At the Grand Opera House to-night Mr. Burgess will present Widow Bedott in place of Vim, which he has played all the week up to last night. This favorite American comedy will probably draw a better house than the new piece has had all the week.

At the Pavilion matters are progressing rapidly towards putting the stage in good order for the Brady-Webster Company which opens there next week.

A Change in the Time.

Commencing to-morrow at 1:30 P. M. the through sleeping-car, between Los Angeles and Ogden will leave at 1:30 instead of 7:30, as formerly. All Pullman passengers, destined to the East or Ogden, will take the 1:30 train. This arrangement shortens the time between Los Angeles and Council Bluffs about twelve hours, and the passengers will accordingly arrive at 6:30 P. M. instead of 8:15, as formerly. This new arrangement allows the passengers a splendid chance to see the Sierra Nevada mountains by daylight Heretofore the train passed this magnificent scenery in the night time, and it was only by stopping over that any idea of the grandeur of the country could be obtained.

Planing Mill Company.

The Pacific Planing Mill Company yesterday filed articles of incorporation. The object of the company is stated to be milling, sawing and turning lumber; and the directors are A. C. Randolph, W. C. B. Randolph, S C. Dodge, Thomas Hughes and J. W Loy. The capital stock is $40 000 divided into 4000 shares of $5 each. Of this amount $20,000 has been subscribed.

The John Wieland Brewing Company, of San Francisco, received the highest awards for their excellent lager at the following exhibitions just ended: At Sacramento, 1 gold medal for State of California; at San Francisco, 1 gold medal of Mechanics' Institute, and at Reno, 1 silver medal for State of Nevada. Messrs. Stemke & Bruning, 322 N. Alameda street, are the sole agents and bottlers for Los Angeles.

Grand opening.

The "Two Friends" saloon, 112 Los Angeles street, between Requena and Commercial streets, Saturday, November 12. Free lunch served in first-class style. Turkeys, chickens, ducks, etc. Music in attendance. Everybody is invited.

BATES & BONNER, Proprietors.

Lack of space prevents an extended account of the ball game yesterday, which was the best given thus far. The score was 4 to 3 in favor of the Philadelphians.

LANDS

(Non-Irrigated.)

—IN—

LIVERMORE VALLEY,

Alameda County, Cal.

About 1000 Acres of the Best Land OF THE ROSE BLACK TRACT,

Adjoining the beautiful tree-embowered town of Pleasanton, are now for the first time offered for sale in small sub-divisions. The soil of the Black ranch has long been well known as equal to the best in California That of the Rose Tract is equally good The land offered is all moist, but never overflows.

For Fruit, one-half of this land has no superior, as surrounding orchards will attest. It is a deep, well-drained, alluvial loam, which has produced a ton of wheat to the acre in the dryest season ever seen in this State. Two tons of barley to the acre is a common crop on this land.

For Vegetables and kindred crops without irrigation, it has no equal anywhere. Hop fields, blackberry, strawberry and asparagus beds, and a large acreage of potatoes, beets, carrots, squash and pumpkins, of country-fair size, are now growing, or being harvested on the land. A common crop of potatoes is 200 sacks per acre; of carrots, 75 to 100 tons; other products in proportion. Is unequalled for the sugar beet. Alfalfa produces four crops a year.

There is not an acre of any but the very best land offered. The tracts have been opened up by wide, graded avenues, and will be sold in small plots, of from five acres upwards.

No better tract of land has ever been subdivided in California. American families are deriving a comfortable support from two or three acres of this land.

This is "A Veritable Garden Spot of the Earth," where a generous soil and every needed climatic condition, yield results which seem almost fabulous.

No dead water, no malaria, no fogs.

Livermore valley nestles among the high, rugged ridges of the Coast Range, and is exposed to neither the cold winds of the coast, nor the great heat of the interior. The climate is as near perfection as this world affords.

But 42 miles from San Francisco, on Livermore Division of C. P. R. R. Two mails daily. Telegraph and telephone facilities.

Free carriages at Pleasanton, at all times, to convey parties over the land.

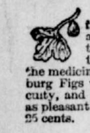
Sore Throat

Is particularly favorable to the contraction of diphtheria. Heed the warning, and use Darbys Prophylactic Fluid. It at once allays the inflammation of the throat, subdues the pain and gives permanent relief. It promptly and effectually destroys all contagion and diphtheritic germs. It is a safeguard against diphtheria, and should be used on the first symptoms of sore throat as a gargle.

HAMBURG FIGS.



Probably as much misery comes from habitual constipation as from any derangement of the functions of the body and it is difficult to cure for the reason that no one likes to take the medicine that is usually prescribed. Hamburg Figs were prepared to obviate this difficulty, and they will be found effective as well as pleasant to the taste of women and children. 25 cents.

Review of New York Stock and Petroleum Markets.

NEW YORK, November 10.—The stock market to-day was weak almost all day long, and prices to-night show material losses on all the active stocks. The dealings for the most part were dull, because the bulls took little interest in the market apparently. An immediate depressing influence was the illness of the German Crown Prince, which caused a throwing over of stocks in Europe and selling by foreigners here as a natural consequence. The excitement in Chicago over the Anarchists was made the means of intimidating buyers by the bears, to which was added some hammering.

Government bonds dull and steady.

Petroleum opened strong at 72⅞ and advanced ¼ in early trading, after which it became heavy and declined ⅞, closing weak at 73¼. Sales 1,140,000 barrels.

FOR SWEET CHARITY.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society's Needs.

Everyone in the community knows how much good work is done by the Ladies' Benevolent Society. When Los Angeles was a village the work of these good ladies was easily handled. To-day, with a population of over 60,000 souls, the demands on their purse and time have grown apace, until the strain is very great. Just now the ladies are in pressing need of clothing of all sorts, particularly articles suitable for infants and children of all ages. The need of these is immediate. Those who have anything in this line to spare should send it to Mrs. Ducommun, at 87 Ducommun street, this city.

Among those coming here from the East are a great many sick and absolutely destitute. Many pitiable cases come under the eyes of the ladies who manage this society. A few days ago a man arrived here in the last stages of consumption, and he was accompanied by his wife, who is paralyzed in the lower part of her body. They have not a cent to bless themselves with. Many people write to the president of the society from Kansas City and from El Paso asking for money to come here with. Others come to the ladies and say they are sick, and dead broke, and these want money to pay their way home again. Few of the wealthy people who have come here of late years have ever manifested any desire to join the society, or to contribute to its funds. There is a loud call for more means to meet the many cases of distress, and there is as loud a call for workers to help do the work of the society. The annual meeting takes place during the first week of December, and that would be a good time for persons disposed to be useful in this way to join the society. Persons wishing to help can report to Mrs. Ducommun as above.

Recently one of these eastern indigents, when refused money to pay his passage to the East, said: "Why, all your money comes from rich eastern people who have come here, and it is intended to help us." This is a mistake. The funds of the society all come out of old residents of Los Angeles.

Pasadena furnishes a large number of sick and poor people who apply to the society for aid. This is another great hardship. It is all the ladies can do to half care for the cases right at their doors. Pasadena ladies should "go and do likewise," following the good example of our noble band of ladies. A society should be formed in that city to take care of the cases belonging to that community.

Besides all this the county should set up a poor farm. The hospital is not the place for indigents. They should be on a farm, where they may do a little work and thus help so far as possible to produce what they need. This will be a long time though in reaching, and meantime all charitable people should remember the needs of the Ladies' Society and send in of their superfluity to relieve the distress of the sick and needy.

The assembly is managed on strict business principles and those intending to join must respond immediately.

It is now stated that Lord Cairns did not inherit the million pounds sterling from his uncle, as he expected, but the will carefully excluded him. Fifteen million dollars have been bequeathed to Lieut. McCalmoni, of the Scots Guards, a young gentleman with a weakness for yachting.

CHANGE OF LIFE.

Everybody Should Take a Month's Vacation.

There is so much work in this world that if everybody should take a month's vacation there would be enough left to keep us busy. Take time, however, to read these two voluntary testimonials and if you have any friends similarly situated, cut this out and send it to them.

A lady living near Haverhill, N. H., wife of a wealthy manufacturer, writing to Mrs Lydia E Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., says: "I have been taking your compound and liver pills six months. I was very low when I commenced taking your medicine. Without question it has been the means of saving my life."

It is a medicine exclusively for good and not for evil purposes. A lady in Green county, Ill., wife of a very prominent merchant, says: "I am fifty years old and in, as you know, a very critical time of life. I feel certain that I never could have lived through it this long had it not been for your compound. I have been afflicted with prolapsus uteri for twenty-five years and never have found anything to relieve me until I found your vegetable compound. I feel like sounding its praise as long as I live. I am stouter and healthier now than I have been for thirty years. I have been taking your compound about three years; am never without it in the house."

When Your Nerves Bother You,

Invigorate them. When your night's repose is unsound or unrefreshing, your appetite jaded or capricious, when slight noises cause you to start, and annoyances of slight moment abnormally worry you, know three things, viz: First, That your nerves are weak; second, that you need a tonic; third, that its name is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the promptest, safest, most popular article of its class. The nerves are susceptible of invigoration only by promoting an increase of vigor in the processes of digestion and invigoration. Narcotics and sedatives have their utility, but in the main, and if their use be continued, they are unsafe. A wine-glass of the Bitters before retiring, and a repetition of the same during the day before or after meals, is far more likely to confer health yielding sleep than repeated doses of an opiate. Dyspepsia, debility, inactivity of the kidneys and bladder, fever and ague, and other malarial complaints, are always dominated and subdued by it.

CATARRH.

THE TERM CATARRH IS APPLIED TO A peculiar disorder of the nostrils and adjacent parts, which prevails to an alarming extent, and is productive of very serious consequences.

The most prominent and characteristic feature is a morbid discharge from the head, varying in its nature at different times.

In some there is an almost constant flow of clear, acrid fluid, but oftener an offensive, purulent or muco-purulent, greenish-yellow matter is secreted, which accumulates in the nostrils or drops into the throat, necessitating its frequent removal by blowing the nose or expectoration, and often by both processes. Sometimes patients feel as though their head was in a state of rottenness, so great is the amount of matter discharged and so fetid is its odor. The patient is greatly annoyed by the constant dropping into the throat of the morbid matter from the head, and as a recumbent position naturally favors the flow downward his rest is frequently disturbed from this cause. Many sufferers are obliged to lie with the head very much elevated in order to sleep with some degree of comfort.

In others a tough, viscid and offensive phlegm collects behind and above the soft palate, in the passage between the throat and head, adhering to the parts with gluish tenacity. Its lodgment embarrasses respiration and creates a sensation of irritation and uneasiness in the affected locality, which gives rise to a constant and almost irresistible desire to relieve that discomfort by drawing the mucus into the throat so as to eject it by the mouth. This practice, popularly known as "hawking," is characteristic of catarrh; and proves as embarrassing to the one affected as it is disagreeable to those around him.

Again, the offensive matter hardens and deposits itself on the membrane in the shape of dry, hard concretions, which are discharged by way of the nostrils or throat in lumps or fragments of a deep green tint. In some cases these incrustations accumulate to such an extent as to form a regular plug in the nose, which obstructs breathing and produce serious discomfort. So firmly do these incrustations adhere to the point of attachment that their removal usually requires the most violent efforts; not unfrequently they have to be torn from the membrane. Occasionally a solid cast of notable size is expelled, on which there are generally traces of blood, but in some cases the cast presents a tubular appearance, being of exact shape of the nasal cavity. This condition is indicative of ulceration, which, in time, may destroy the bony structure of the nose and produce a subsequent flattening of that organ.

Cases are occasionally met with in which a thick, viscid, slimy secretion coats the membrane of the nasal cavities and then putrefies, giving rise to a stench which is really overpowering, and sufficiently fetid to poison the atmosphere of a whole room; and there are others in which all the secretions of the membrane are suspended, causing an unpleasant feeling of dryness, heat and feverishness in the head and nose—a condition popularly known as "Dry Catarrh."

The disease speedily extends to the air cavities of the bones of the forehead and face, giving rise to a distressing sensation of heavy weight or compression over the forehead, especially in the region above and between the eyes, and to a feeling of fulness, heat, irritation, soreness or pain in the nostrils near the root of the nose, as well as in the upper part of the throat, above and behind the soft palate. Sometimes there is pain obstinately fixed in some particular part, as in the temple, on the top of the head, at the back of the neck, or behind the orbits, and, occasionally, pain manifests itself in the face of so severe a character that it is frequently mistaken for neuralgia.

The breath is always tainted, and at times assumes an exceeding fetid and sickening odor. In some cases it becomes so revoltingly offensive as to render the sufferer an object of disgust to himself as well as to others.

The nasal membrane is thickened and conjested, causing the nose to be stopped up, sometimes on one side, sometimes on the other, and often on both, giving rise to a disagreeable, stuffy sensation in the head, and occasioning violent and prolonged paroxysms of sneezing.

The voice is weak, indistinct and husky, or of a nasal character, displaying a sort of sniffing quality. Oftentimes there is a continuous hoarseness and discordance. There is also a sense of irritation in the part, and frequent attempts to clear the throat of phlegm, producing the sound "hem," more or less forcibly. In some cases patients complain of an uncomfortable feeling of fullness or a choky sensation in the throat, and in others of a distressing and almost constant dryness, for the temporary relief of which they have to swallow frequently. Others; again, speak of a constant bad or nauseous taste in the mouth or throat.

The stomach generally suffers more or less and becomes weak and irritable; the appetite is capricious and nearly always bad in the morning. The patient is languid, unable to perform mental or physical labor with the usual facility, is nervous, depressed in spirits, at times fearful, timid, agitated and inclined to drowsiness and sleep, the memory weakened and permanent impairment seriously threatened.

The mucous membrane soon becomes morbidly sensitive to unfavorable influences, and in spite of the utmost care becomes affected from the slightest causes, so that at last a breath of wind upon the lining of the nose or throat becomes productive of a cold, and gives rise to serious disturbances of the respiratory organs. Thus the patient is subject to frequent and repeated colds, each attack aggravating the disease by giving it a new impulse and involving a larger extent of surface than its predecessor. In this manner the difficulty spreads from organ to organ, invading the throat, larynx, trachea and bronchial tubes, until encroaching further and further, it reaches the finer ramifications of the bronchi, when but a slight impulse is required to send it to the lungs. Catarrh may, and often does, affect other organs in the body, especially those containing a mucous membrane, such as the stomach, bowels, kidneys, etc.

By the employment of proper inhalations in the form of medicated vapor (not steam or spray) we are able to produce immediate and direct action upon the diseased surface in the pharynx and nasal passages, for air will find its way into the most remote and intricate cavities, where it is utterly impossible to make fluid applications. By these means every case can be cured.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedy at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless the disease has advanced to the chest and that both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success. The very best references from those already cured.

CONSULTATION FREE.

Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for consultation and examination, but, if impossible to do so, can write for a copy of my Medical Treatise, containing a list of questions. Address
